Professional Reading

RiskAfrica – www.riskafrica.com

Monthly articles noted for CPD recognition, where relevant questions have been successfully answered. CPD recognition is given for each publication issue on which all article questions are successfully answered.

Qualification and further studies

IISA Programmes as per the study track or any other industry relevant qualification study as per qualifications on the FSB's list of approved qualification for which an academic record can be provided.

UNISA	9 hours per 12 credit module 18 hours per 24 credit module
Milpark	15 hours per 20 credit subject

It is important to note that CPD is not awarded for registration of the module or subject but only for the successful completion (pass) thereof.

Due to privacy laws the IISA does not have access to the data of the above providers and students would need to send the IISA a copy of their statements of results for these to be uploaded.

Published Books

Any published books which are recommended by the Professional Standards Committee and for which a motivation of influence can be verified, or recommended by industry.

Published Articles

Any person who authors articles for publication can claim CPD for their efforts by submitting the published article, as per the CPD Process document.

NOTE:

Grading indication is based on the complexity of the content presented. The grading classified and indicated as:

- Intro – Introductory
- Inter – Intermediate
- Adv - Advanced

Disclaimer

Please note that this Calendar is in no means prescriptive of CPD Activities, its purpose is to make note of events that have been submitted for recognition and approval for members consideration.

Events are submitted by the various organisers for recognition and confirmation as and when they have the relevant details available.

Professional Development is not only limited to Conferences and Seminars, but includes any verifiable activity that provides continued education in a professional skill or expertise.
